What appears to have been a bold robbery, occurred at Bennington late Saturday night or early Sunday morning, when the office of the Bennington Machine Works was broken into and the money drawer relieved of $10 in cash. The work evidently was that of an amateur, as one panel of the door was battered to pieces and part of the casing chopped into splinters.

Hos. Frank Plumley of Northfield left Monday morning for Woodstock, where he will attend the Windsor county court in session there. He was accompanied by G. C. Sanborn, Seth Rich, W. T. Kerr, Ed. Willey and Charles Houston, who were summoned to appear before this court as witnesses in the case of Russ vs. Central Vermont railway, an action to recover damages for an alleged injury sustained last summer.

The Rev. Edward G. French began a pastorate of the Congregational church at Lyndonville January 1. The Chatham train about there and by mistake they boarded that and did not notice the error until the train had started. The other train was then gone and they were obliged to wait until 2:30 in the afternoon.

White Hair Without Honor.
The dislike entertained in Serbia to fair hair is so great that it extends even to the white hair of old age. No Serbian matron who respects herself would appear in public with white hair, nor does she hide the fact that she dyes it periodically. This custom has come down to her from her mother and grandmother.

Fined a Dead Man.
After a juror in a Sydney (Australia) court had been fined $10 for two days in succession for absence it was discovered that he was dead.

A Very Close Call.
"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from its use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Rickert & Wells, Druggists. Price 50c.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the hair is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbros' Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MONTPELIER OFFICER SUE.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bianchi Claim Trespass by Special Officer Fox.

There may be some interesting developments in Montpelier city court Saturday, January 14. Joseph Bianchi and his wife have each brought suit in trespass for $50 against Daniel Fox, a special police officer of that city, and the cases will be heard then.

The plaintiffs say that last Sunday night Fox went to their house, claimed he was an officer, showed his badge and said he had papers for Mr. Bianchi. Mrs. Bianchi went to the door and Fox followed up stairs where he told Bianchi what was wanted, according to Bianchi's story. Bianchi then claims he told him to put out his hand and he put the twisters on his wrist and then demanded a drink. Bianchi said he asked him to show his papers and he replied he did not have to. Bianchi claims he gave him two drinks of wine. Mrs. Bianchi came into the room and seeing her husband with the twisters on set up a howl. They claim the special took a revolver and pointed it at her. They say Fox was given two drinks of wine. Fox says he went to the house to stop a disturbance and a revolver was drawn on him.

Chief McMahon stated that the story told to him by Fox after the affair happened was that he went to "Joe" Bianchi's house on Sibley avenue last Sunday evening, having heard that Bianchi was selling liquor without a license and wanted to investigate the reports he had heard. He told him he must keep the house more orderly than he had as several complaints had come to him in respect about these things. After Mr. Fox had had a few words with Bianchi upon the subject, the latter drew a revolver on Fox and ordered him out of the house.

Doubled the Quantity of Eggs

What is the purpose of feeding poultry food? Is it not to give strength and vigor to young stock and to increase the egg production in older birds? H. L. Rice of Fairlee, Vt., tells how "Page's Perfect Poultry Food" serves these ends. Read his letter: "Page's Perfect Poultry Food" is considered a good thing by those who have used it in this vicinity. Several of my customers have informed me that their hens doubled the quantity of eggs after using the food a few days. It is also considered a good feed for growing chicks."
